ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

LIPSCOMB UNIVERSITY

Chair, Tenured (2022) Associate Professor (2020-present); Assistant Professor (2014-2020); Adjunct Professor (2010-2014)

COURSES

Beginning Directing (TH 2113) [3 hr.]

Led student through contemporary play directing projects focused on both organic and highly structured directing styles. Worked in collaboration with the Beginning Acting course.

Advanced Directing (TH 4203) [3 hr.]

Mentored students in directing period style scenes and plays in collaboration with the Advanced Acting class. Showcases have included Greek, Shakespeare, Early Realism, Absurdism and American Classics.

Acting IV: Shakespeare (TH 4013) [3 hr.]

Taught students how to approach, analyze, and explore Shakespearean monologues and scenes. Students also researched and presented on Shakespeare's plays and attended regional Shakespeare productions.

Acting III: Improvisational Acting (TH 3043) [3 hr.]

Trained students in the art of improvisation, both short form and long form. Course led to a student-formed improvisation group on campus that still produces shows today.

Shakespeare and Leadership (LULT 2143) [3 hr.]

Co-taught Honors College course with College of Business Dean exploring the intersection of Shakespeare's texts and leadership styles, including ideas of power, business as theatre, and leadership ethics. Have taught in-person and online asynchronous.

Contemporary Plays (TH 2011) [1 hr.]

Led students in semester of reading, analyzing, and discussing plays written since 2000. Focused on historical context, themes, and relevance to contemporary audiences.

Dramaturgy (TH 3093) [3 hr.]

Taught directing students the fundamentals of dramaturgy including research, analysis, theory and working with directors and production teams. Worked on actual productions.

Senior Seminar I (TH 4102) [2 hr.]

Taught senior capstone course for all acting, directing, and design majors preparing to enter graduate school, teaching, and/or the professional industry. Course focused on both practical strategies and artistic development.

Senior Seminar II (TH 4112) [2 hr.]

Taught senior capstone course for all acting, directing, and design majors preparing to enter graduate school, teaching, and/or the professional industry. Course culminated in a showcase performance for acting students and design portfolio presentation for design students.

Movement for the Stage (TH 2143) [3 hr.]

Trained students to develop a sustained physical process in order to enhance acting impulses and character development. Used a variety of movement disciplines including Viewpoints Theory and Laban Effort Actions.

Theatre History II (TH 4112) [3 hr.]

Taught students theatre history from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. This was a hybrid course.

Theatre History II: Global Learning Trip to London (TH 4112) [3 hr.]

Taught students theatre history in 10-day course in London. Trip included museums, walking tours, backstage tours, a day trip to Stratford-upon-Avon, and production experiences at the West End, The National Theatre, and The Globe Theatre.

Special Topics: The Canon (TH 423V) [3 hr.]

Led students through a play-reading class focused on analyzing important classical works. Helped students understand texts while developing their artistic point of view. Served as an introduction to dramaturgy.

Voice and Diction (TH 2123) [3 hr.]

Taught Lessac technique including proper breathing, posture, and vocal support. Emphasized the voice as a conduit to unlocking characterization and achieving acting objectives. Course explored both physical and vocal work in monologues and scenes.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

Teacher of Record (2007-2009)

Served as graduate research assistant, box office employee, and teacher of record during tenure. Received full-paid tuition. Directed two main-stage shows and assistant directed another. Completed a 120-page thesis exploring Steve Martin's Picasso at the Lapin Agile, which I also directed. Created and performed graduate school orientation play.
